THE SURRENDER OF METZ. -This event of course has produced a profound sensation as well in France as in Germany. The following is the proclamation of the French Government, which breathes a lofty spirit which rises with disaster:

FRENCH REPUBLIC-LIBERTY, EQUALITY, FRATERNITY - PROCLAMATION TO THE FRENCH PEOPLE.

FRENCHMEN: Raise your spirits and esolution to the fearful height of perils which have broken upon our country. It still depends on us to mount above misfortune and show the world how great a people may be who are resolved not to perish, and where courage increases in lever) from the country in its danger more than 100,000 of its defenders. Marshal Bazaine has betrayed us! He has made himself the agent of the man of Sedan and the accomplice of the invaders, and regardless of the honor of the army of which he had charge, he has surrendered, without even making a last effort, 120,000 fighting men, 20,000 wounded, guns, cannon, colors, and the strongest citadel of France, Metz, virgin but for him, to the contamination of the foreigners.

Such a crime is above even the punishment of justice. Meanwhile, French-men, measure the depths of the abyss into which the Empire has precipitated you. For twenty years France submitted to this corrupting power, which extinguished in her the springs of greatness and of life. The army of France, stripped of its national character, became, without knowing it, an instrument of tyranny and of servitude, and is swallowed up in spite of the heroism of the soldiers by the treason of their chiefs. In the disasters to the country, in less than two months 250,000 have been delivered over to the enemy, a sinister sequel to the country of December.

military coup de main of December.

It is time for us to re-assert ourselves, citizens, and under the legis of the Republic, which we have determined not to allow to capitulate within or without, to seek in the extremity even of our political and social morality and man hood. However tried by disaster, let us be found neither panic-stricken nor hesitating. Let it be seen that we are ready for the last sacrifices, and in the face of enemies, whom everything favors, let us swear never to give up so long as there remains an inch of sacred soil under the soles of our feet. Let us hold firmly the glorious banner of the French revolu-

No illusion is now left. Let us no longer languish or grow weak, and let us prove by our acts that we can, ourselves, main-tain honor, independence, integrity—all tain honor, independence, integrity-all that makes a country proud and free. Long live the Republic, one and indivisible. Signed by Cremieux, Glois

The surrender of Metz, by releasing seems to have been, as our correspondent led us to hope it might prove to be, part of what looks now like a systematic attempt of the Imperialists in Belgium and England to represent the position of the army at Metz as more helpless than it really was.
